DAY 2 LUANG PRABANG- KUANGSI FALLS

(Breakfast)

5h20: Head to the peninsula to witness and attend alms giving. 5.40am-6.15am - Long lines of monks and novices stroll the street of the town center to collect their daily food subsistence from the worshippers. This ancient ritual is locally known as "tak bat".

Continue with a visit to the open-air food market that is held daily in the streets near the former Royal Palace. Lao people still like buying fresh food. While fridges are widely spread in households, people prefer going to local markets and returning home with fresh ingredients.

You will begin your visit of the main monuments of the city of Luang Prabang, classified as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1995.

we visit The National Museum at the former Royal Palace, which displays a lovely collection of the artifacts reflecting the richness of Lao culture dating back from the days of the early kings right through to the last sovereign. Then, the Heritage House (Heuan Chan Heritage House) will allow you to better understand the protection, enhancement, and preservation policies of the city of Luang Prabang. Through its architectural heritage, of which the building on stilts is an archetypal example.

After lunch, we continue drive to visit Kuang Si waterfall, 32 km south-west of Luang Prabang. We stop the Laos Buffalo Dairy Farm that produces cheese and a range of delicious dairy products. The diary provides income and a sustainable future for the Lao people involved. Learn how to milk a Buffalo, cuddle a Buffalo for the perfect selfie and try some incredible ice cream. The Buffalo may be the stars of the show, but the playful pigs, chickens and cute rabbits are also plenty of fun for the young and young at heart! After that, En-route you will make stops to visit ethnic minority villages. Kuang Si is a good place to get more familiar with endemic and endangered Asian Black Bear at the Rescue Center.

It is also possible to hike to the top of the falls via a steep trail, and if the weather is good, you might enjoy a swim in the crystal-clear water ponds at the foot of the falls.
